Information on UNFCCC and Climate Change

The Climate Change Learning Centre. Located in the exhibit area in the hotel foyer, the Learning Centre is a newly-created facility whose goal is to provide information about climate change and the secretariat. Implemented on a trial basis at the current sessions, it is a resource for anyone interested in:

- Information on climate change information sources
- Background information on the climate change process and the secretariat
- Who's doing what in the process
- Who's doing what in the secretariat
- How to contact members of the secretariat
- How to obtain access to or copies of secretariat information products or services.

The Learning Centre includes display panels as well as a computer with an Internet connection which will be used in providing assistance on how to:

- Effectively search and retrieve climate change related information from the web;
- Evaluate the quality of web-based information;
- Locate other sources of climate change information.

A special feature of the Climate Change Learning Centre is the Climate Talk Kiosk, a small area where participants can give demonstrations, presentations, or show videos. The Climate Talk Kiosk is equipped with a podium, video player, TV and a PC with a 21" monitor.

Documentation

All official documents as well as the Daily Schedule, the Daily Programme, and lists of participants, are available at the Documents Distribution Counter in the conference foyer.

Hours: 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. (week days)
Tel.: 902-4335

- Participants are encouraged to use this area for their events. The kiosk can be reserved for presentations of 30 minutes on a first come, first served basis by contacting staff at the Learning Centre.

The UNFCCC Library and Documentation Centre. Located at secretariat headquarters in Haus Carstanjen, the library is open to participants of the meetings. For further information on services provided by the library and arrangements for a guided tour, please contact library staff at the Climate Change Learning Centre (see above).

The UNFCCC web site on methodologies and tools to evaluate strategies for adaptation to climate change can be accessed at <http://www.unfccc.int/program/index.html>.

For further information, please contact Ms Olga Pilifosova. Tel.: 815-1428, Fax: 815-1999, or E-mail: opilifosova@unfccc.de UNFCCC documents are also available on the World Wide Web (<http://www.unfccc.int>) and by direct electronic mail upon request to: secretariat@unfccc.int.

Computer and Communication Services

Computer Centre. Computers and one high-speed printer are available to participants on a first come, first served basis. These computers, located in the foyer of the 1st floor, are equipped with word processing and spreadsheet software and are connected to the Internet.

In addition, there are six computers set up in the main foyer on the ground floor to provide participants with quick access to e-mail accounts and the Internet.

Note: Please be considerate and do not monopolize the equipment as all participants should have access to it.

Photocopying machines. Two card-operated photocopying machines are available for the use of participants for the duration of the meetings. These machines are located in the conference foyer, between the stairs and the Documents Counter. The cards needed to operate these machines can be purchased from the Bonn Information Desk (see below).

Participants who wish to reproduce larger quantities or need special reproduction services are advised to use the copy shops listed on page 5 (see also the map "Maritim Area Services and Restaurants" included in this folder).

Telephones, fax machines, and modem jacks. Two coin-operated telephones and three card-operated telephones, two card-operated fax machines and two card-operated telephones with modem jacks are located in the Conference foyer behind the main stairs. Please note that the coin-operated telephones belong to the Hotel Maritim and charge a higher rate. The Deutsche Telekom cards needed for the card-operated telephones may be purchased at the Bonn Information Desk, which is located next to the Information Desk.

Funding for Delegates

Delegates from Parties eligible for funding may collect their daily subsistence allowance (DSA) from the Administration office located in the foyer of the hotel.

Hours: 9 a.m. - 12 p.m. and 1 p.m. - 5 p.m.
Tuesday, 13 June - Friday, 16 June
